

National Trust

Enjoy a summer in Somerset's countryside

Join us as a volunteer seasonal ranger

1 June to 12 July

This summer, you could join us as a volunteer butterfly ranger. As part of a team, including butterfly experts, help record the Large Blue butterfly at Collard Hill near Street. Accommodation and food costs will be included.

Must be enthusiastic about wildlife conservation, a good communicator and physically fit.

We also have a role for a volunteer to carry out two transects a week, training will be provided.

If either position is of interest to you please contact Tom.

01934 844 518/07970 270854 or email thomas.matchet@nationaltrust.org.uk for more information.

Application deadline 21 April. Interviews 30 April.

Call 07970270854 for details
nationaltrust.org.uk/glastonbury-tor

When you visit, donate, volunteer or join the National Trust, your support helps us to look after special places for ever, for everyone.